David,

Currently, ORS and Airvoice are in the process of getting a Stipulation executed between the two parties. However, it will take a few days to have the Stipulation executed and filed with the Commission. I have talked with Charlie and he has no objection to holding the testimony due in abeyance. Therefore, ORS respectfully requests that the Commission hold the testimony due dates in abeyance. In light of this request, ORS was not planning on filing testimony due October 15, 2014. Please let me know at your earliest convenience if the Commission is amenable to holding ORS' testimony due date in abeyance.

Thank you,

Andrew M. Bateman, Esquire
